Club Meeting Wed., Oct. 4th

October Club Meeting

At our October 4th club meeting we will discuss some of our upcoming hunting trips and Fred will give us a brief Hunter Safety refresher seminar.

We will be accepting nominations for club officers at the meeting. See related article on upcoming officer elections, for descriptions of positions and qualifications. Actual elections will be at our November 1st Club meeting.

See you at the meeting! †

Up Coming Officer Elections

We will be having Club Officer elections at our November 1st Club Meeting. Positions up for renewal are President, Vice President, Secretary, Recording Secretary, Treasurer, a 1 year Trustee and a 2 year Trustee.

We will be accepting nominations for these positions along with those recommended by the nominating committee at the October club meeting. Be thinking about whether you would like to run for office, or if you know someone you think would be good at it.

New officers will take over at the January club meeting.

All nominees must be members in good standing and must accept the nomination. Here is a list of officer duties taken from our club bylaws.

President: The President shall preside at all meetings of the Club and of the Board of Directors. He shall appoint all Committees and shall be an ex-officio member of all committees except the Roger Dahl Memorial Inspirational Award Committee; with the power to vote. He shall countersign with the Treasurer or in the absence of the Treasurer, either the Vice President or the Secretary, all checks properly drawn on the Treasury. He shall perform such other duties which are usually incident to the office, and as may be provided by the Club, and like all other officers, he shall serve without salary.

He shall take no part in any discussion while presiding; shall refrain from expressing a personal opinion on questions before the meeting; and shall avoid all personal bias while giving information to the Club.

He shall call upon the Vice President to preside if he wishes to speak on a motion or to leave the chair; then he has all the privileges of a member, and addresses the presiding officer in the same manner as any other member. Continued on Page 2

Brewster Bird Hunting Trip

On Oct 7th we will be going Quail hunting in the Indian Dan Canyon portion of the Wells Wildlife Area, located near Brewster, WA., about 64 miles north of Wenatchee. Camping is available in the town of Brewster at the Columbia Cove RV Park or in Indian Dan Canyon itself, if you don't mind not having hookups. Last year we stayed in the canyon near a small lake and plan to stay there again this year. If you do stay in the canyon remember there is no water and I would not count on the pit toilet there being useable.

The outgoing President shall instruct the newly elected officers to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the By-laws before the January meeting of the Club.

The President shall have each newly elected member recite after him, "The Sportsman's Oath" as follows: "I solemnly swear that I will abide by the Constitution and By-laws of the West Seattle Sportsmen's Club and help in its up-building, and I will not willfully disobey the Game Laws wherever I fish or hunt. I will always be a true sportsman both in the field and to my brother members at all times."

Vice President: The Vice President, in the absence of the President, shall preside at all regular or special meetings of the Club and of the Board of Directors.

He shall be responsible for the procurement and arrangement of the entertainment portion of the program at all regular meetings.

In the absence of the President, he shall countersign with the Treasurer or Secretary, all checks properly drawn on the Treasury. He shall perform such other duties as are usually incident to the office.

Secretary: The Secretary shall keep a full and complete type-written record of the proceedings of all meetings of the Club and of the Board of Directors, and shall preserve all records in proper books furnished by and which shall remain the property of the Club. He shall hand such books and records over to his successor in office within ten (10) days after election of such successor. He shall perform such other duties as may be provided in the transaction of the business of the Club and in the absence of any two of the President, Vice President or Secretary, he shall countersign with the remaining one of the three named above, all checks properly drawn on the Treasury.

He shall act as reading clerk. He shall call the meeting to order in the absence of the President and Vice President, and preside until a chairman pro-tem is elected. He provides, for the presiding officer, a statement of the unfinished business to come before each meeting. He shall assume the duties of a corresponding secretary in that he conducts the correspondence of the Club; sends out the notices of regular and special Club and Board of Director meetings; and furnishes delegates with credentials; and supplies committees with all papers referred to him.

He shall keep current, a properties book listing all of the Club's physical properties and records. This book shall have recorded in it the location of each item listed.

Recording Secretary: The Recording Secretary shall assist in performing all duties incident to the Office of the Secretary, as instructed by the Board of Directors. He shall procure the Past Presidents Pin which is awarded to each President upon leaving office, and shall hand it over to the newly elected President prior to the January Club meeting.

Treasurer: The Treasurer shall keep a roll of all members; collect all dues; provide all paid-up members with their membership cards; shall have custody of all moneys of the Club; and shall pay all bills, claims, or rewards approved by the Club, or by the Board of Directors, as herein provided. He shall countersign with the President, or in the absence of the President, either with the Vice President or Secretary, all checks properly drawn on the Treasury.

He shall keep an accurate account of all receipts and disbursements and shall present a full statement of the financial affairs of the Club at each monthly meeting at which business is transacted, or to the Board of Directors at their request. He shall hand over to his successor in office, within ten (10) days after the election of his successor, a complete and accurate financial statement, together with all funds, books and records pertaining to his office, and he shall perform such other duties as are herein provided.

He shall maintain in the name of the Club, a Checking and/or Savings Account in regularly established banking institutions.

Trustees: The three Trustees shall perform such duties as may be herein provided; and, with the other elected officers, shall constitute the Board of Directors. †
