Totem's Junior Shooting Program

As many of you know, The West Seattle Sportsmen Club help sponsor a junior shooting program. Every Monday and Wednesday night, 22 kids meet at the range to hone their shooting skills. Since the beginning of the year, many of them have competed in 15 local, state and National matches. Many of our young shooters have won honors and medals by beating their peers in these competitions.

The West Seattle Totems, our junior shooters, have compiled way too many awards to list them all in this newsletter so we will just mention the major accomplishment of our team.

The Thunderbirds team of Lily Voynick, Corinne Blair, Lauren Phillips, and Emma Cary won the NRA 4 Position Small-bore National Championship. Led by Silver

Medalist Lily's score of 398 out of 400, these girls set the Women's Team National Record posting a total team score of 1573 out of 1600. This team score eclipsed the previous record of 1551 set in 1969.

The Thunderbirds also competed in the 3 Position Air Rifle National Championship and finished as the 1st Intermediate Junior team and 4th overall in the team competition.

This same team also set another national record as intermediate juniors (ages 15 to 17) and Women's record in the NRA 3-position Smallbore match with a score of 2203 of a possible 2400 points and just falling a little short of taking yet again another National Championship, they were the 2nd place Intermediate Junior team in the 3 Position Smallbore Sectionals. Way to go ladies!

Our 2nd team, the Chiefs, was also quite busy during these matches. Kelli Moseley, Jack Ellis, Casey Iwamoto and Owen Yeasting finished 12th in the Junior Age class (18-20) in the 4 Position Championships. Kelli is a Junior Age Class shooter, so the team had to compete at the higher age class.

The Chiefs also placed 12th Intermediate Junior (this time Jack Ellis, Matt Zoba, Nick Young and Owen Yeasting) in the 3 Position Air Rifle Championships.

One of our youngest shooters, Matt Zoba, placed 2nd in the nation shooting in the sub-junior category, (ages 14 and under) in the 3 Position Smallbore Championship. His score of 536 of 600 won him a silver medal and bright future for the Totems.

This was the final year for Kelli Moseley and Marisca Mozesleski. Both of these young ladies had very successful junior careers. They age out of the program at the end of the year. Who knows, maybe we will see these two coaching in the future....

The team's next match will be in beautiful Anniston Alabama. The team arrives on June 25th. Equipment inspections will be on June 26th and 29th. They will be competing on June 27th, 28th, 30th and July 1st. You will be able to view the match as it is in progress on the CMP website: <http://clubs.odcmp.com/cgi-bin/matchUpcomingSearch.cgi?designation=AIR> †

Bowman Bay

We had our first spring camping trip to Bowman Bay June 21st - 24th. The weather when we got there on Thursday was beautiful and we set our Crawfish pots out at Pass Lake. That all changed late Friday morning when it started raining and kept raining the rest of the day. We had our evening Campfire in the covered shelter and enjoyed our days catch of fresh Crawfish.

Saturday it was dry until about noon and rained again until about 5 or 6 PM. It decided to stop just in

BAKED QUAIL

- 8 quail (cleaned and rinsed)
- 1 cup fresh mushrooms, chopped
- 1 cup Italian seasoned breadcrumbs
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1 teaspoon table salt
- 1/4 teaspoon ground red pepper
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1 tablespoon seasoning salt
- 3 cups chicken stock
- 1 teaspoon scallion, minced
- 1 teaspoon fresh parsley, minced
- 8 orange slices (for garnish)
- cooking spray

Directions:

1. Pre-heat the oven to 325° F. 2. If the quail have been shot in the wild, inspect them all for lead shot, removing any shot with tweezers or the point of a paring knife. 3. Lightly rub all the quail, inside and out with the seasoned salt. 4. In a large skillet, over medium heat, melt the butter and saute the mushrooms, bread crumbs, and table salt until the mushrooms tenderize a bit. Stuff the quail with this mixture. 5. Using the same skillet, make a roux by pouring in the olive oil and browning the flour in it. Then, add the chicken stock, scallions, red pepper, and parsley to the roux and saute the mix for about 5 minutes, until the onions are tender. 6. Next, spray a baking pan or large casserole dish with cooking spray and place the stuffed quail in it. Pour the sauce over the quail. 7. Baked, uncovered, at 325° F. for 45 minutes, basting 2 or 3 times during the baking process. 8. Serve two quail to a person and garnish each plate with two orange slices. Serve cooked white rice as a side dish. †
