Clam Bake and Dig

We will be having our annual Clam Bake at Lincoln Park, Shelter No. 5 (this is the one near the kids wading pool), on Wednesday June 4th. Appetizers will be served at 6 PM and Dinner at 7 PM. The price is $10.00 per adult, ages 12 and under are free. We have had to up the price because we will need to buy steamer clams to use this year. Our usual location for obtaining them is closed due to pollution and our alternate location is closed due to red tide.

Our planned menu items are deep fried razor clams, clam chowder, Roz's baked stuffed butter clams, Jerry's Clam boil and coleslaw.

We will be digging butter clams for the clam chowder and for deep frying at Steve Patnode's place near Coyle and Dabob Bay on Hood Canal, Continued on page 2

Alder Lake Trip

Our freshwater fishing trip to Alder lake for the weekend of June 13th -15th is nearly upon us. We will be staying at Rock Point Campground and all campsites that the club reserved have now been taken. If you still want to go you can try to make your own reservations through Washington State Parks (I checked and there were still 8 openings there). If you are a tent camper and would like to share a spot someone else has, contact Jerry Mascio and we will see if we can fit you in. This should be a fun trip with lots of fishing possibilities. Alder lake is know for it's Kokanee fishing but also has Rainbow & Cutthroat trout, Bass (only size 12 to 17 inches may be kept) and Perch. Trolling with Wedding Rings and spinners fished behind strings of trolling blades are most popular, most also put bait on the hook of the Wedding Ring with worms being the most popular.

Nearby Mineral lake is known for big trout, both Rainbow and Brown Trout put on weight fast in this lake. Still-fishing with Berkley Power Bait produces some of the large Rainbows, but trolling is also lucrative.

We will probably put out our Crawfish pots on one of the lakes so we can look forward to a good Crawfish feed.

Saturday night we will be having our usual Potluck dinner that all enjoy Continued on page 2

Grilled Backyard Beer Burgers

Make burgers with a flavor bonus! Beer, garlic and onion are the extras.

Makes: 6 servings

- 1 1/2 lb lean (at least 80%) ground beef
- 1 small onion, finely chopped (1/4 cup)
- 1/4 cup regular or nonalcoholic beer
- 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 2 cloves garlic, finely chopped
- 6 rye or whole wheat hamburger buns, split
- Ketchup, if desired
- Pickle planks, if desired

1. Heat gas or charcoal grill. In medium bowl, mix all ingredients except buns, ketchup and pickles. Shape mixture into 6 patties, about 3/4 inch thick.
2. Place patties on grill rack over medium heat. Cover grill; cook 10 to 15 minutes, turning once, until meat thermometer inserted in center of patties reads 160°F. Add buns, cut sides down, for last 4 minutes of grilling or until toasted.

3. Top burgers with ketchup and pickle planks; serve on buns.

Avoid pressing down on a hamburger patty while it's cooking--you'll squeeze out much of the flavorful juices!

Variation:

For Burgundy Burgers, substitute 1/4 cup Burgundy wine for the beer!
